

RECEIVED

JAN 6 '58

U. OF R. LIBRARY

Business Conditions

a review by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

Index for the year 1957

Banking, general

Bank loans in 1956—another year of expansion, February, 13-16.
Is credit too scarce and too costly?, February, 5-10.
Location of business borrowers, April, 11-14.
Savings levels and turnover, May, 7-9.
Fringe benefits at Midwest banks, June, 14-16.
Credit demand remains strong, August, 5-8.
Climb in time deposits, October, 11-16.
Interest rates here and abroad, December, 10-13.

Business finance

Business loans at small banks, January, 12-14.
The price of business loans, March, 14-16.
On the issue of credit for small business, November, 14-16.
Business loans show less vigor, November, 9-14.
Profits under pressure, November, 4-9.

Consumer credit and savings

Savings institutions less liquid, January, 8-12.
Illuminating consumer credit, April, 6-9.
Credit unions: mutual finance, May, 9-14.
Consumer instalment credit: issues in perspective, June, 4-9.
Automobile credit: contract maturities ease at banks, July, 8-10.
Debt and consumer spending, August, 11-16.

Economic conditions, general

Our American economy: strength of the Republic, May, 4-6, 14-16.
The trend of business, January, 2-3; February, 2-4; March, 2-4; April, 2-4; May, 2-3; June, 2-4; July, 2-4; August, 2-4; September, 2-7; October, 2-5; November, 2-4; December, 2-5.

Farm finance and agriculture

Interest rates on farm loans, April, 14-16.
Farm loans in the Midwest, June, 9-13.
Too rich for pork?, July, 10-14.

Farm finance and agriculture, cont.

Something new in farm land values?,

September, 7-14.

Deposits rise at "farm" banks,

September, 14-16.

Industry, trade and construction

Capital expenditures — mainstay of the boom, January, 4-8.

Retail trade gains momentum,

February, 10-13.

Home building adjusts to lower plane,

March, 10-14.

Autos and the outlook, April, 4-6, 10-11.

Inventories a key factor again, July, 5-8.

Retail trade at midyear, July, 14-16.

The boom in exports, August, 8-11.

The job market: easing evident, but unemployment remains low, December, 5-9.

Public finance

Municipal borrowing: green light, January, 14-16.

The Federal Budget — a ten-year perspective, March, 5-9.

Public assistance in prosperous times, October, 5-10.

Growth in Treasury trust accounts slows down, December, 14-16.
